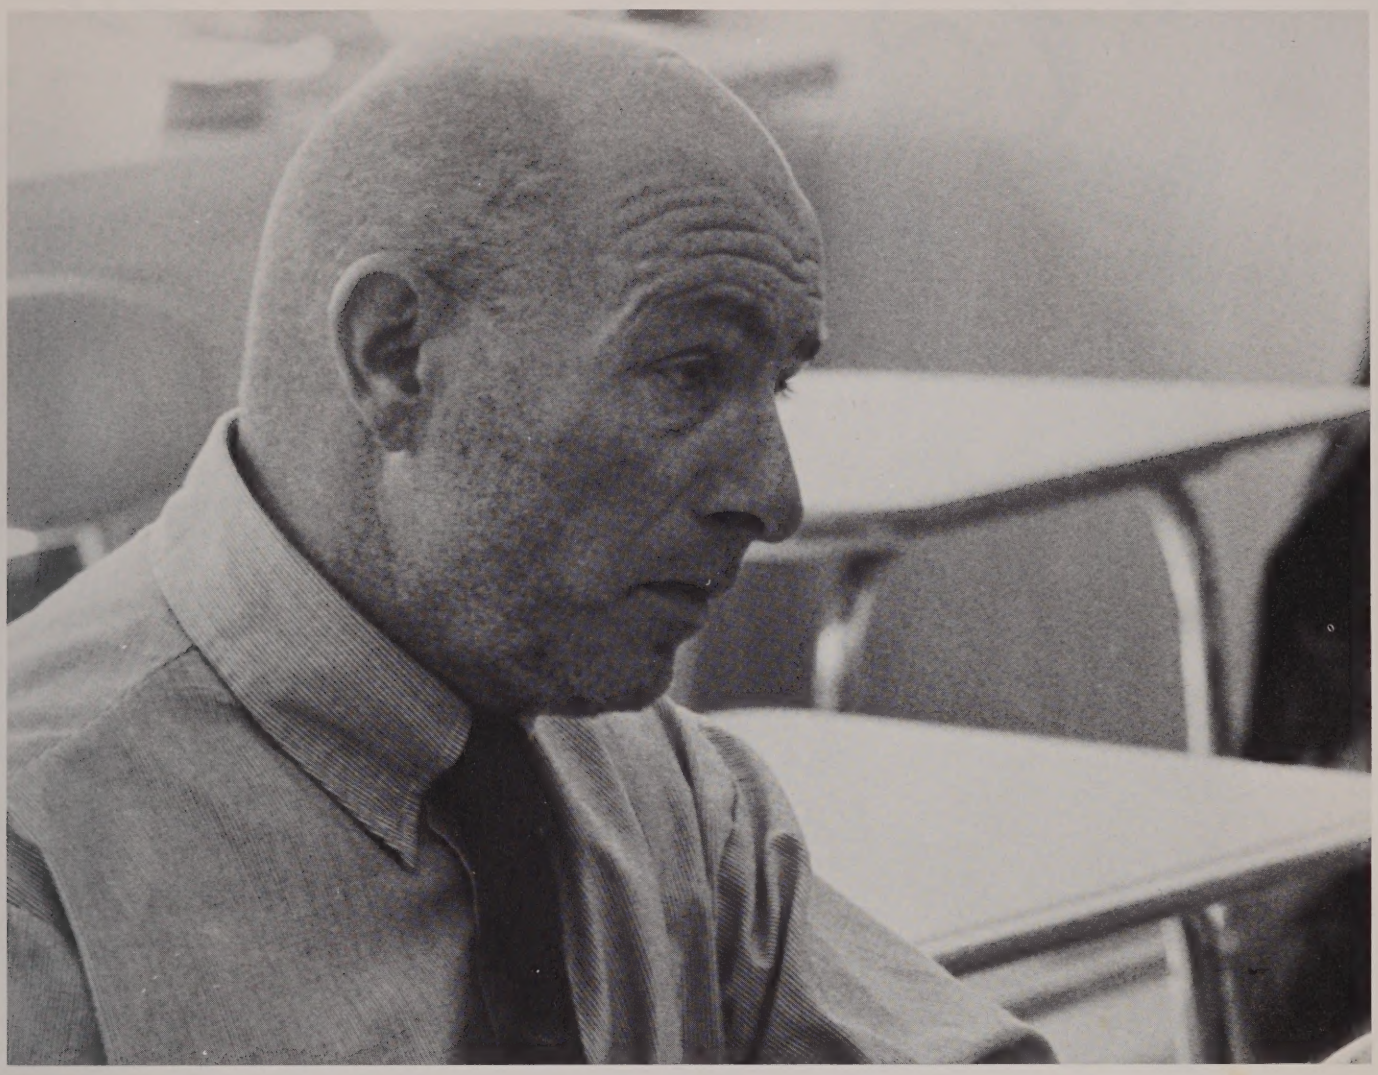
Dedication



It is during one's junior year, perhaps the most memorable time, that the first prom takes place, that the once lowly sophomore is assimilated into the rank and file of high school society as an upperclassman, and that the trek through the annals of United States History is embarked upon, with the guidance and leadership of our resident historian, Mr. Vernon Bruneau.

Mr. Bruneau, at first, appears to be an awesome, note-taking educator, who is determined to stunt our scholastic attainment, through his battery of tests, questions, and reports. But, with the hindsight we now possess, we can say that he did not hinder our educational progress, rather, he cultivated and nurtured it. He has played a large part in our success as students and will continue to do so with other students who will follow us. He taught us to be responsible and mature, education's most valued lesson.

We thank him for his undying dedication to our education. Therefore, we wish to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Vernon Bruneau in admiration of and in respect for his knowledge and his loyalty to the purpose of education.

Glimpses of Yesterday

Carefree hours and very first flowers-
Arched, golden pathways of stairways to power.
Memories of love and - oh - surrender-
Hearts and smiles and summertime splendor.
Tree-lined lanes and peppermint canes-
Truths and meaning with heartbreaking pains.
Saturday dances and princes with lances-
Music and friendship turn into exciting romances.
From diapers with pins to gold chains and gowns-
Goodbye to balloons, and birthday party clowns.
Here we are - grown up to stay,
Moving on to tomorrow, do we lost track of yesterday?

The finishing touches

THE END

This is the end
beautiful friend
This is the end
my only friend the end
of our elaborate plan the end of everything that stands the end
no safety or surprise the end
I'll never look into your eyes again

Can you picture what will be so limitless and free
desperately in need of some stranger's hand
in a desperate land

Lost in a Roman wilderness of pain and all the children are insane
All the children are insane waiting for the summer rain

There's danger on the edge of town
Ride the king's highway
Weird scenes inside the gold mine
Ride the highway west baby . . . . . .

This is the end
beautiful friend
This is the end
my only friend the end
It hurts to set you free
but you'll never follow me
The end of laughter and soft light
The end of nights we tried to die
This is the end.

Many statements have been written on Vocational Education and most of them say in essence that Vocational Education offers courses that prepare students for immediate employment as a semi-skilled or skilled worker or technician in a variety of recognized occupational fields.

Rather than dwell on this, I would like to offer the following statement by John Gardner, former Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare which combines logic with an excellent philosophy.

"The Society which scorns excellence in plumbing because it is a humble activity and tolerates shoddiness in philosophy because it is an exalted activity will have neither good plumbing nor good philosophy, neither it's pipes nor it's theories will hold water."

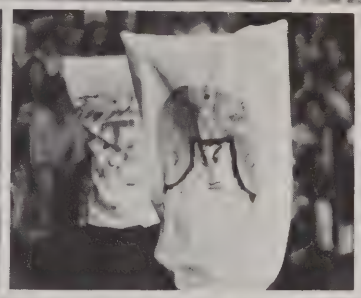
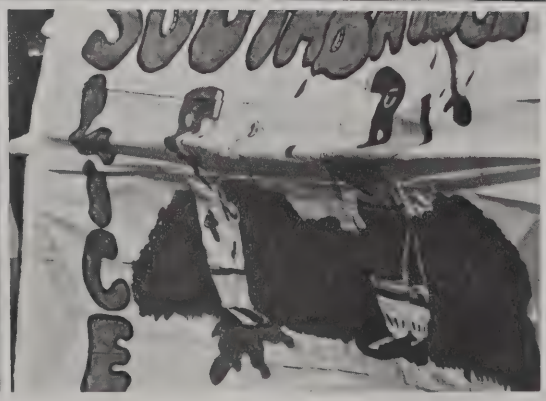
The Boyfriend 1979

One Last Look . . .





The Famous Final Scene

Think in terms of bridges burned,
Think of seasons that must end,
See the rivers rise and fall,
They will rise and fall again,
Everything must have an end,
Like an ocean to a shore,
Like a river to a stream,
It's the Famous Final Scene.

How you tried to make it work,
Did you really think it could,
How you tried to make it last,
Did you really think it would,
Like a guest who stayed to long,
It's finally time to leave,
Take it calmly and serene,
It's the Famous Final Scene.

It's been coming on so long,
You were just the last to know,
It's been a long time since you've smiled,
Seems like oh so long ago.
Now the stage has all been set,
And the nights are growing cold,
Soon the winter will be here,
And there's no one warm to hold.

Now the lines have all been read,
And you knew them all by heart,
Now you move towards the door,
Here it comes the hardest part,
Tie a handle on the road,
Feeling different, feeling strange,
This could never be arranged.

As the light fades from the screen,
It's the famous Final Scene

An Irish Blessing

May the road rise to meet you,
may the wind be always at your back;
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
the rains fall soft upon your fields;
Until we meet again
May God hold you
In the hollow of his hands.
